

Winter Blast at Brierfield!
February 15, 16 & 17, 2008
Hosted by: 37th GA Volunteer Infantry
Franklin Rangers
“Mean Dang Cluckers”

Okay boys and gals! It's time to put on your long handles, hitch up your trailers, rev up your space heaters, pack up your rain gear, clean the rust outa yer bores and sight in your weapons for the first Deep South Skirmish of the 2008 N-SSA season. Make like a baby and head out to Brierfield Ironworks! What are you readin' this for? Go get packin'! With the Supreme Court lookin' at the 2nd Ammendment there's plenty of reasons to keep your shootin' skills honed and this will be your first opportunity!

The 37th GA cordially invites all Deep South teams and as always welcomes any others willing to make the trip to join us for this momentous occasion. The Road Kill Café will be open for business serving fresh daily choices from Al. Hwy. 25 for breakfast and lunch! Mmmmm-Mmmmm Gooooood!

Shootin' will start on Friday afternoon with individuals and end on Sunday. See the schedule below for details. We would be most appreciative and more likely to prepare target boxes for y'all if ya would kindly let us know who is or ain't comin'! If you let us know you're coming, we'll be sure to make up your target boxes with easily breakable targets. Show up unannounced and we'll give you a target box full of titanium target look-alikes that will have you cussin' up a storm!

We look forward to seeing everyone after the long off-season and plan to run a safe and fun shoot so you can get off to a great start for 2008!
